NEW MAGAZINE/YOUTH COORDINATOR HIRED

Cambridge, ON February 7, 2011 – The Ontario Holstein Branch is pleased to announce that Andrea Crummer has joined the organization.

Andrea will be replacing Jennifer Kyle as she commences her one-year maternity leave.

Andrea is a graduate of Wilfrid Laurier University and holds an Honours Bachelor of Arts, in Journalism and Bachelor of Arts in Contemporary Studies. She has used her skills as a Writer and Copy Editor for Laurier's newspaper as well as a Copy Writer for a graphic design and printing company. She is also a freelance writer and has had several contributing articles in publications as well as local newspapers. Prior to journalism, Andrea worked as a Treasury Assistant and Analyst for a company in Holland where she became fluent in Dutch. Andrea grew up in the Millbank area where she was active in 4-H for 8 years taking several life skill clubs.

We look forward to Andrea joining our staff and welcome her to the team.

Interested advertisers can reach Andrea at acrummer@ontario.holstein.ca or call 519-653-6180 to discuss details.
